The Israel Telangana Association celebrated Diwali with great enthusiasm and traditional fervour in Israel. The celebrations included special prayers to Goddess Lakshmi, followed by the distribution of prasadam and Annadanam (community meal).

More than 2,000 Telangana people and friends participated in the celebrations, making the event a grand gathering of the Telugu community. The programme highlighted Telanganaâ??s rich culture, traditions and festive spirit on foreign soil.

The event was attended by Association President Niradi Prakash, Vice President Karan Goud, General Secretary Vallakonda Shiva Goud and Treasurer Sandeep.

Founder Mahesh Merugu and committee members DJ Bunny, Premanandhu, Anvesh and Maruthi also played an active role in organising the celebrations.

The festivities brought together the Telangana community in Israel, fostering unity, friendship and a sense of cultural belonging among the expatriates.
