Gainesville, Virginia (Mediaboss Network): The American Telugu Association (ATA) successfully organized the ATA Golf Tournament 2026 at the prestigious Stonewall Golf Club in Gainesville, Virginia, bringing together golf enthusiasts, community leaders, ATA supporters, and conference volunteers for a day of sportsmanship, networking, and fellowship.

The tournament witnessed enthusiastic participation from golfers across the community and concluded with a grand awards ceremony. Winners and outstanding performers were felicitated with trophies, raffle prizes, and special gifts, adding excitement to the celebration.

The success of the tournament was largely credited to the dedicated efforts of the Golf Tournament leadership team, including Manohar Enugu, Surendar Yedulla, Murali Malyala, Prasad Tumuluri, Vikram Kallepu, and Ravi Mullapudi, whose meticulous planning, coordination, and teamwork ensured the smooth execution of the event.

The event was graced by ATA President Jayanth Challa, along with conference leadership, core committee members, sponsors, volunteers, and supporters. They encouraged participants and applauded the spirit of healthy competition displayed throughout the tournament.

ATA extended heartfelt appreciation to the Golf Committee, sponsors, volunteers, and everyone who contributed to the event's success. The association also congratulated all winners and participants for their exceptional sportsmanship and enthusiastic participation.

The ATA Golf Tournament marked another successful milestone in the lead-up to the 19th ATA Conference & Youth Convention, further building excitement and strengthening community bonds ahead of the flagship event scheduled to take place in Baltimore, Maryland, from July 31 to August 2. Organizers expressed their eagerness to welcome attendees for what promises to be a memorable celebration of Telugu culture, unity, and service.
