

Austin Celebrates TDF Bathukamma in Grand Style

Description

Over 5,000 Indian Americans Join the Vibrant Festivities in Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS (MediaBoss Network): Bathukamma celebrations were held in grand style in Austin, the capital of Texas, USA, attracting more than 5,000 Indian Americans. Organised by the Telangana Development Forum (TDF) at the local Rio Rancho Cricket Grounds, the event showcased the rich cultural heritage and traditions of Telangana.

Bathukamma, one of Telangana's most significant festivals dedicated to women and celebrated with floral arrangements, was observed with great devotion and enthusiasm. Women dressed in traditional attire brought beautifully decorated Bathukammas made with colourful flowers. Singing traditional songs, clapping and performing Bathukamma dances, they created a festive atmosphere that became the highlight of the celebrations.

People from Various Indian States Participate

The celebrations witnessed participation not only from Telangana families but also from people belonging to Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and several North Indian states. The event reflected the spirit of unity in diversity, bringing together people from different regions to celebrate Indian culture and traditions.

Senior citizens from India, IT professionals settled in the United States, women and children actively participated in the festivities. The celebrations also served as an opportunity to introduce younger generations to India's rich cultural heritage and preserve traditional values among the diaspora.

Food, Fashion and Shopping Stalls Attract Visitors

Several stalls set up at the venue attracted visitors throughout the event. Food stalls serving a variety of delicacies, special Hyderabad sweet paan, designer clothing for women and jewellery received an encouraging response.

Local establishments Desi Circle and Pulao Company sponsored free meals for all those attending the celebrations, adding to the festive spirit and ensuring food arrangements for the visitors.

Judge Sarah More Attends as Chief Guest

Local woman judge Sarah More attended the celebrations as the chief guest. She expressed happiness over the large-scale organisation of the Bathukamma festival and extended her warm wishes to the Indian-American community.

Organisers and Volunteers Applauded

The successful event was the result of nearly a month of planning and hard work by TDF leaders and volunteers. Attendees appreciated the organisers for their efforts in ensuring smooth arrangements and conducting the celebrations without inconvenience.

Sheetal, Pranathi, Sravani, Sravanth Sudheer, Srihi and Rajendar, among others, played key roles in the successful organisation of the event and led the celebrations from the forefront.

The grand Bathukamma celebrations in Austin highlighted the enduring connection of the Telangana diaspora with its cultural roots. The event also strengthened community bonds and demonstrated how Indian traditions continue to flourish among younger generations living in the United States.

Global Times

www.globaltimes.tv

TRUTH | PEOPLE | GLOBAL CONNECT

USA MEDIA PARTNER

PILUPU

Entertainment for Global Audiences

HYDERABAD (INDIA) • WASHINGTON, D.C. (USA)

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2026 | VOL. 12 | ISSUE: 118 | PRICE: ₹ 18 | EDITOR: SWAMY MUDDU

AUSTIN CELEBRATES TDF BATHUKAMMA IN GRAND STYLE

OVER 5,000 INDIAN AMERICANS JOIN THE VIBRANT FESTIVITIES IN TEXAS

TDF BRINGS
TELANGANA CULTURE
TO A GLOBAL STAGE

Members of the Telangana Development Forum (TDF) and community leaders with beautifully decorated Bathukammas at the celebrations in Austin, Texas.

AUSTIN, TEXAS: Bathukamma celebrations were held in grand style in Austin, the capital of Texas, USA, attracting more than 5,000 Indian Americans. Organised by the Telangana Development Forum (TDF) at the local Rio Rancho Cricket Grounds, the event showcased the rich cultural heritage and traditions of Telangana.

Bathukamma, one of the most significant festivals of Telangana and a celebration dedicated to women, was observed with great devotion and enthusiasm. Women dressed in traditional attire brought beautifully decorated Bathukammas made with colourful flowers. Singing traditional songs, clapping and performing Bathukamma dances, they created a festive atmosphere that became the highlight of the celebrations.

Women perform Bathukamma rituals with devotion and enthusiasm.

PEOPLE FROM VARIOUS INDIAN STATES PARTICIPATED

The celebrations witnessed participation not only from Telangana families but also from people belonging to Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and several other Indian states. Senior citizens from India and IT professionals settled in the US, women and children actively took part, reflecting the spirit of unity in diversity.

FAMILIES COME TOGETHER

Senior citizens, IT professionals, women and children actively participated in the festivities. The event served as an opportunity to introduce younger generations to India's rich cultural heritage and preserve traditional values among

JUDGE SARAH MORE ATTENDS AS CHIEF GUEST

Local woman judge Sarah More attended the event as the chief guest. She expressed happiness over the large-scale organisation of the Bathukamma festival

FOOD, FASHION AND SHOPPING STALLS ATTRACT VISITORS

Several stalls at the venue attracted visitors, including food stalls with a variety of delicacies, special Hyderabad sweet paan, and design clothing and jewellery. Local establishments

Category

1. Life Style
2. News

Tags

1. Austin Celebrates TDF Bathukamma in Grand Style
2. bathukamma
3. tdf austin bathukamma
4. tdf bathukamma

Date Created

October 19, 2026

Author

editor

default watermark