Hyderabad: The pre-release event of the movie Prema Ku Jaiâ??, produced by Anasurya under the banner of Eeshwara Parameshwara Creations, was grandly held at the Hyderabad Film Chamber. The film, directed by Srinivas Mallam, features young and talented actors Anil Buragani and R. Jwalitha in the lead roles.

Speaking at the event, guest director-producer Sai Venkat said, â??Audiences do not differentiate between low-budget and high-budget films. If a movie is good, they make it a blockbuster. Prema Ku Jai is one such film that belongs on the list of well-made movies. The songs, trailer, and picturization are excellent. Director Srinivas Mallamâ??s talent is evident in every frame. The film has strong production values, and I am confident it will be a hit.â?•

Director Srinivas Mallam shared, â??This film is based on a real-life incident set in a rural backdrop. Our lead actors, Anil Buragani and Jwalitha, have delivered excellent performances. The hard work and support of every artist and technician contributed to making this film what it is. Our producer has ensured top-notch quality. We sincerely hope the audience will embrace Prema Ku Jai with love.â?•

Co-producer Mylarem Raju expressed his confidence in the film, stating, â??The director has crafted a story that will resonate with the youth. Prema Ku Jai is set to release next month, and we hope audiences will wholeheartedly support it.â?•

Lead actors Anil Buragani and R. Jwalitha thanked the director and producer for giving them this opportunity. They also appealed to the audience to support the film.

The pre-release event was attended by several film industry personalities, including actor Adhire Abhi, producers M.R. Chowdary Vadlapalli, Chander Goud, and director Lawrence. They extended their best wishes to the filmâ??s team. The production unit is making final preparations for the movieâ??s theatrical release next month.
