

Heart-Touching Song 'Nee Puttuke O Varam' from Aaradhya Launched

Description

Hyderabad: The emotionally stirring song 'Nee Puttuke O Varam' from the upcoming film Aaradhya was officially launched today in a graceful and memorable event. Produced under the Mana Emotion Pictures banner, the film is already generating curiosity among audiences for its heartfelt theme and musical depth.

The song was unveiled by former MLC Ramulu Naik, who attended the launch as the chief guest and appreciated the team for bringing forward such a meaningful and soulful composition.

Written and directed by KPS Chinna, the film features touching music composed by Gopinath Konda, whose melody in 'Nee Puttuke O Varam' beautifully captures deep emotional sentiment. The cinematography, handled by Daniel Madasu, adds rich visual texture and enhances the emotional appeal of the song.

Translating to 'Your birth itself is a blessing,' the track strongly resonated with everyone present at the event. The audience responded with heartfelt appreciation, praising both its lyrical depth and soulful presentation. The song is expected to become one of the emotional highlights of the film.

With this impressive musical launch, Aaradhya has taken a promising step forward in building anticipation among cinema lovers.
