Description

- â?ª RK Choudhary suffers a severe spinal injury
- â?ª Requires surgery for recovery
- â?ª Hero Krishna Sai showcases humanity with immediate financial aid

Hyderabad:

Not just on screen, but in real life too, actor Krishna Sai is proving to be a true hero. He has extended financial assistance to cine photojournalist RK Choudhary. Visiting Choudhary at his residence, Krishna Sai handed over a cheque of â?¹15,000 for his medical treatment.

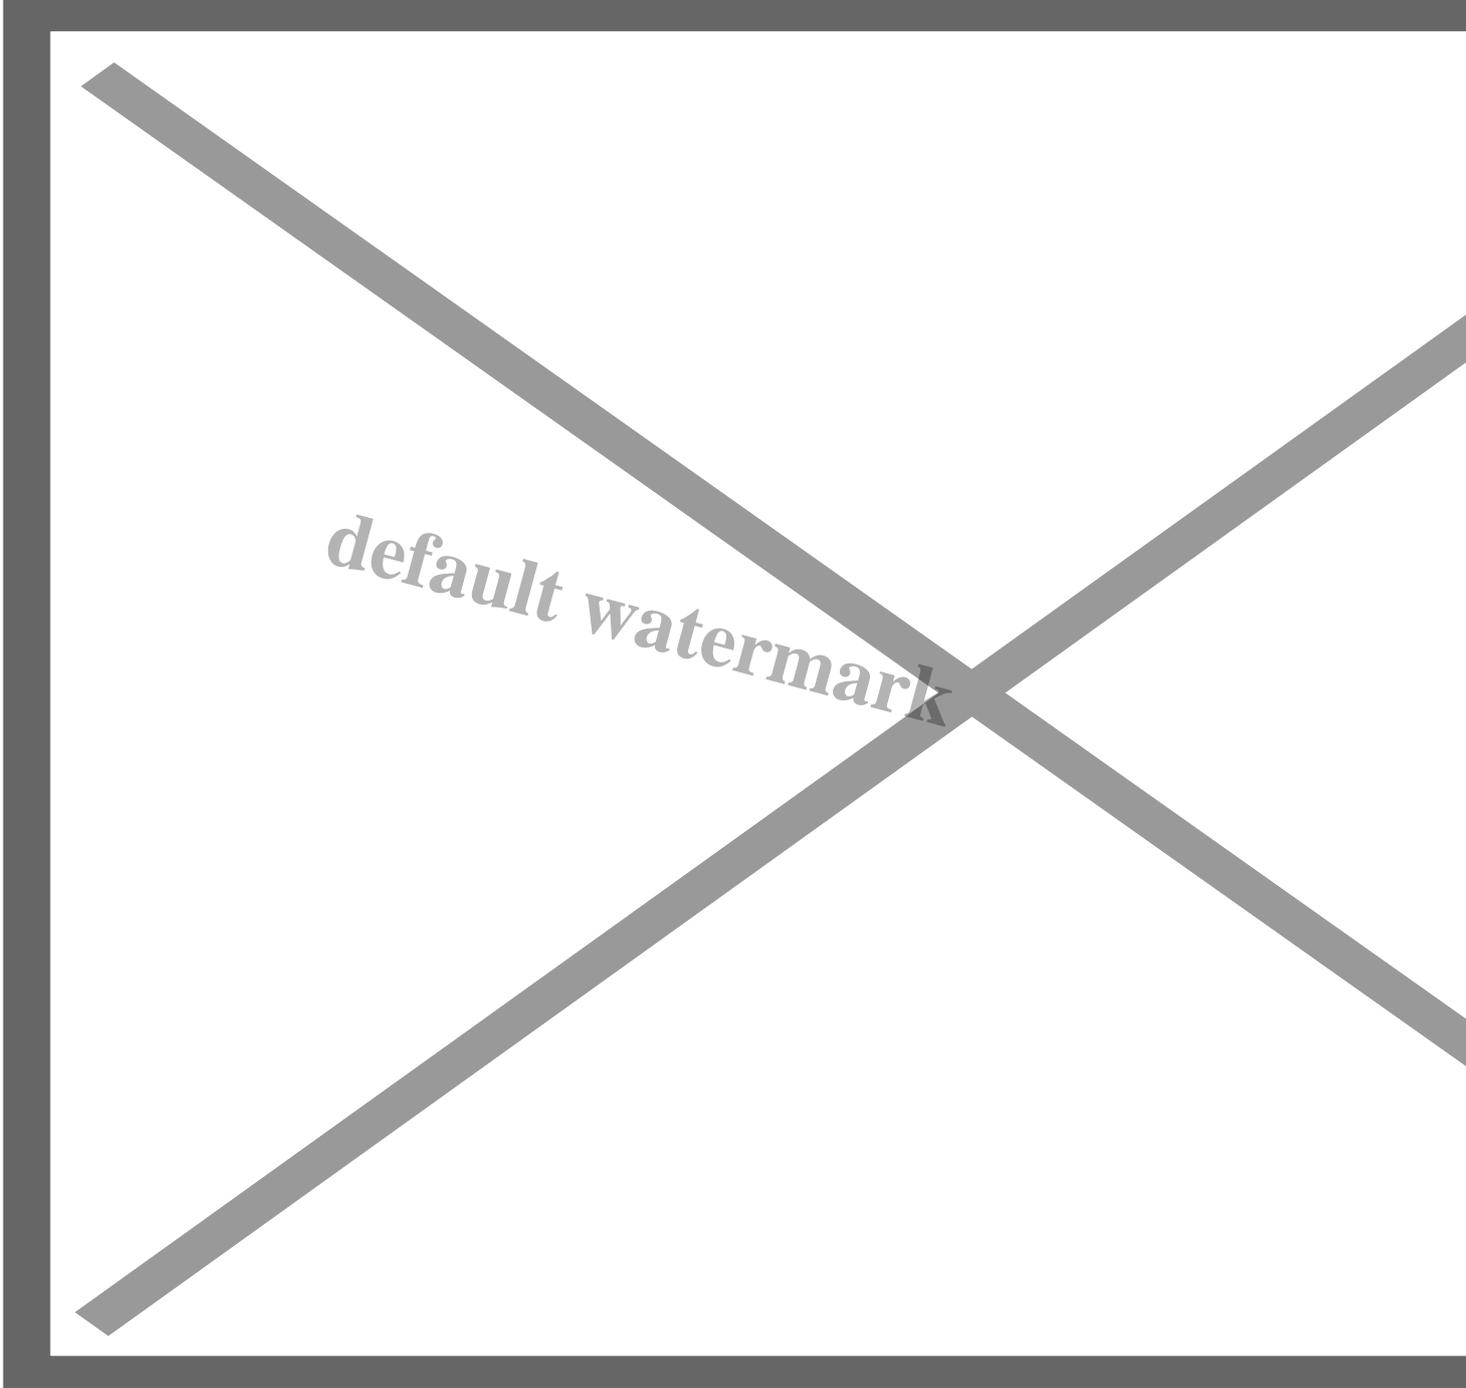

RK Choudhary suffered a severe spinal injury after accidentally slipping and falling at a press meet while on duty as a cine photojournalist. Medical experts have diagnosed compression of spinal discs and recommended surgery. Additionally, he requires expensive injections for continuous treatment, leading to a heavy financial burden. Learning about his condition, Krishna Sai immediately stepped in to help by donating â?¹15,000.

Speaking on the occasion, Krishna Sai stated, â??RK Choudhary has been a dedicated cine photojournalist for a long time, contributing immensely to film journalism. Understanding his familyâ??s financial struggles, I urge the film fraternity, actors, and industry members to stand by him and offer their support.â?•

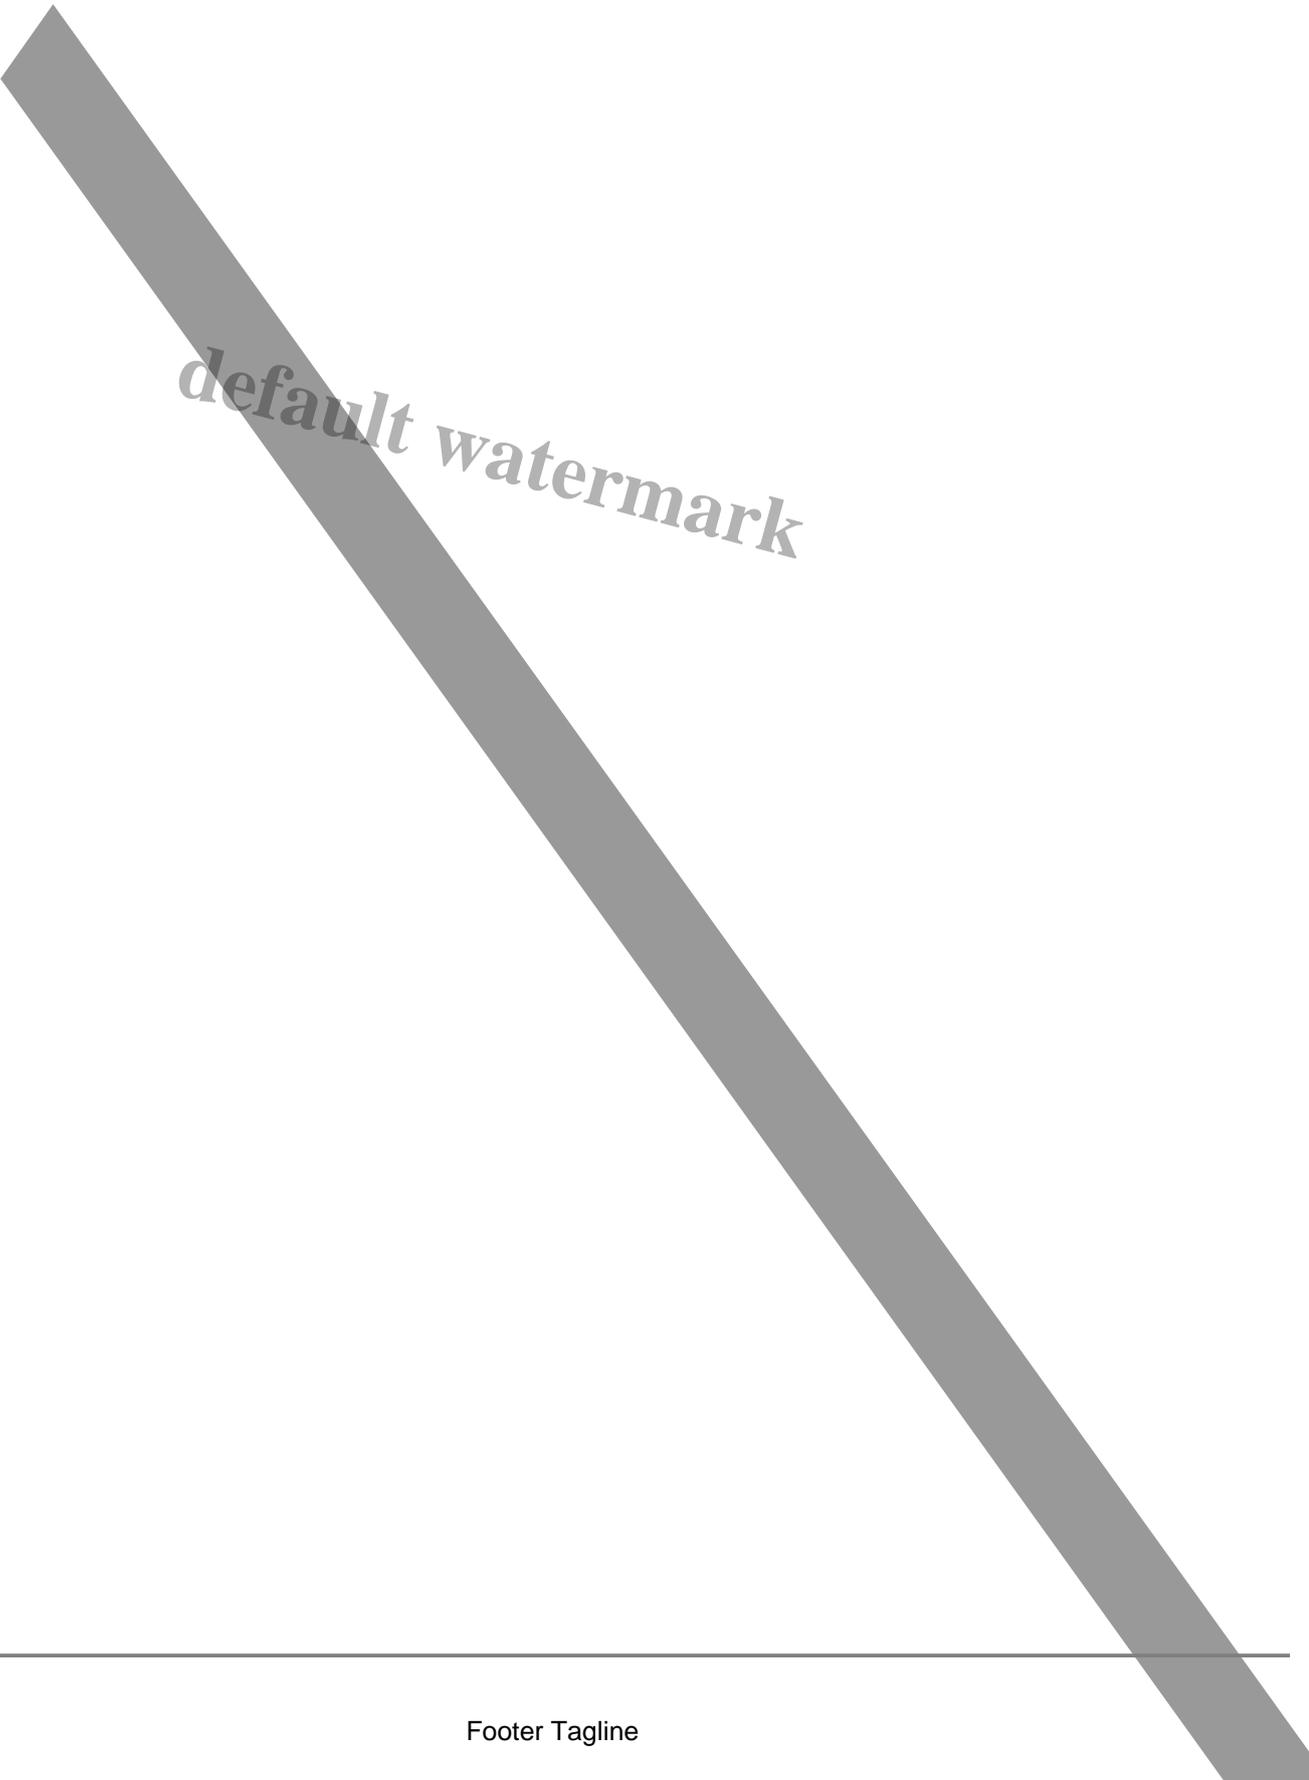

RK Choudharyâ??s family expressed their gratitude to Krishna Sai for his kind gesture. Many cine journalists also praised Krishna Sai for his humanitarian act. Known for his roles in films like Sundarangudu and Jewel Thief, Krishna Sai also runs the Krishna Sai International Charitable Trust, which supports underprivileged people regardless of caste, religion, or region. He continues to be a savior for those in need.
