

Hero Krishnasai Extends Financial Support to Poor Students

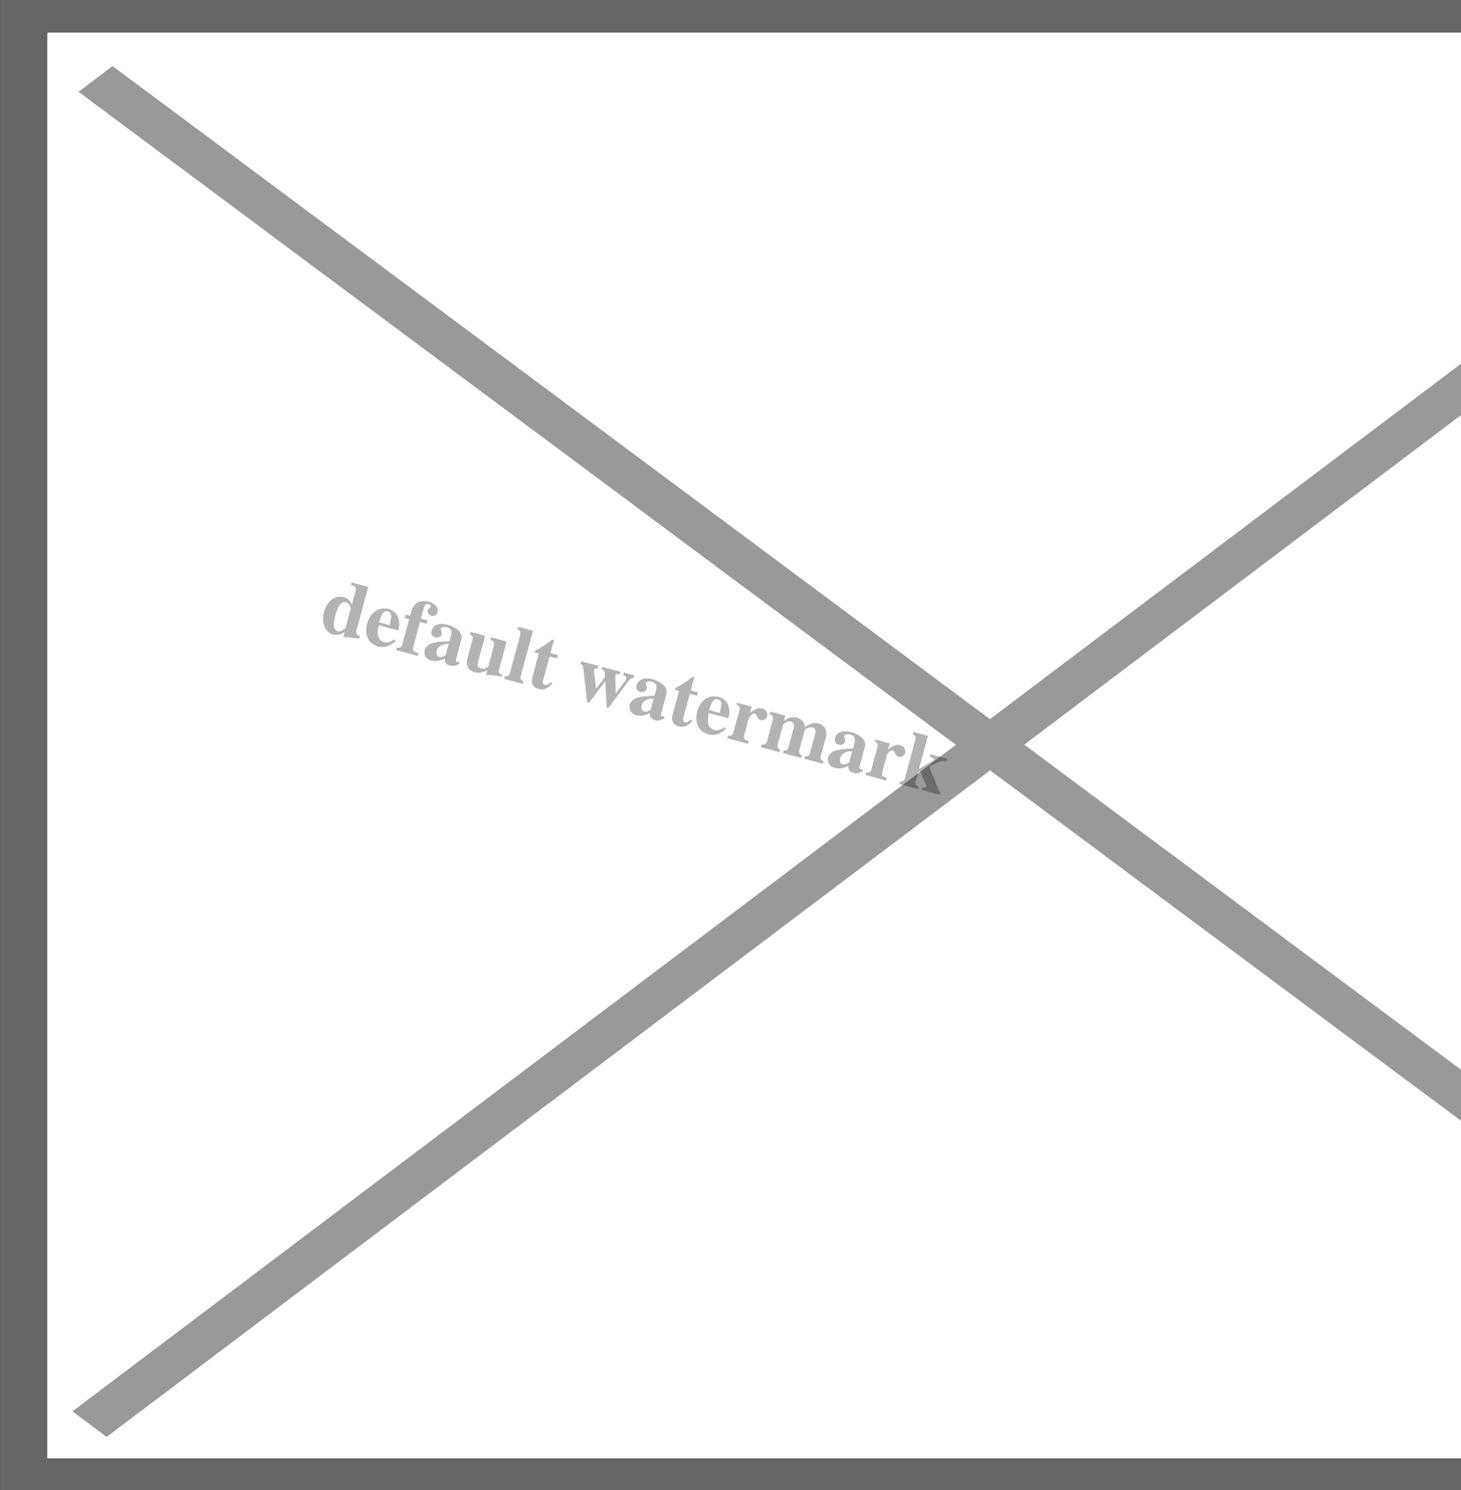

Description

Hyderabad: Proving to be a hero not just on-screen but in real life as well, actor Krishnasai, known for his roles in films like Sundarangudu and Jewel Thief, has stepped forward to support the education of underprivileged students. Through the Krishnasai Charitable Trust, he donated ₹21,000 to three students from poor families in Tolichowki, Hyderabad—Mirza Yaseen, Mirza Mohammed, and Mirza Haroon.

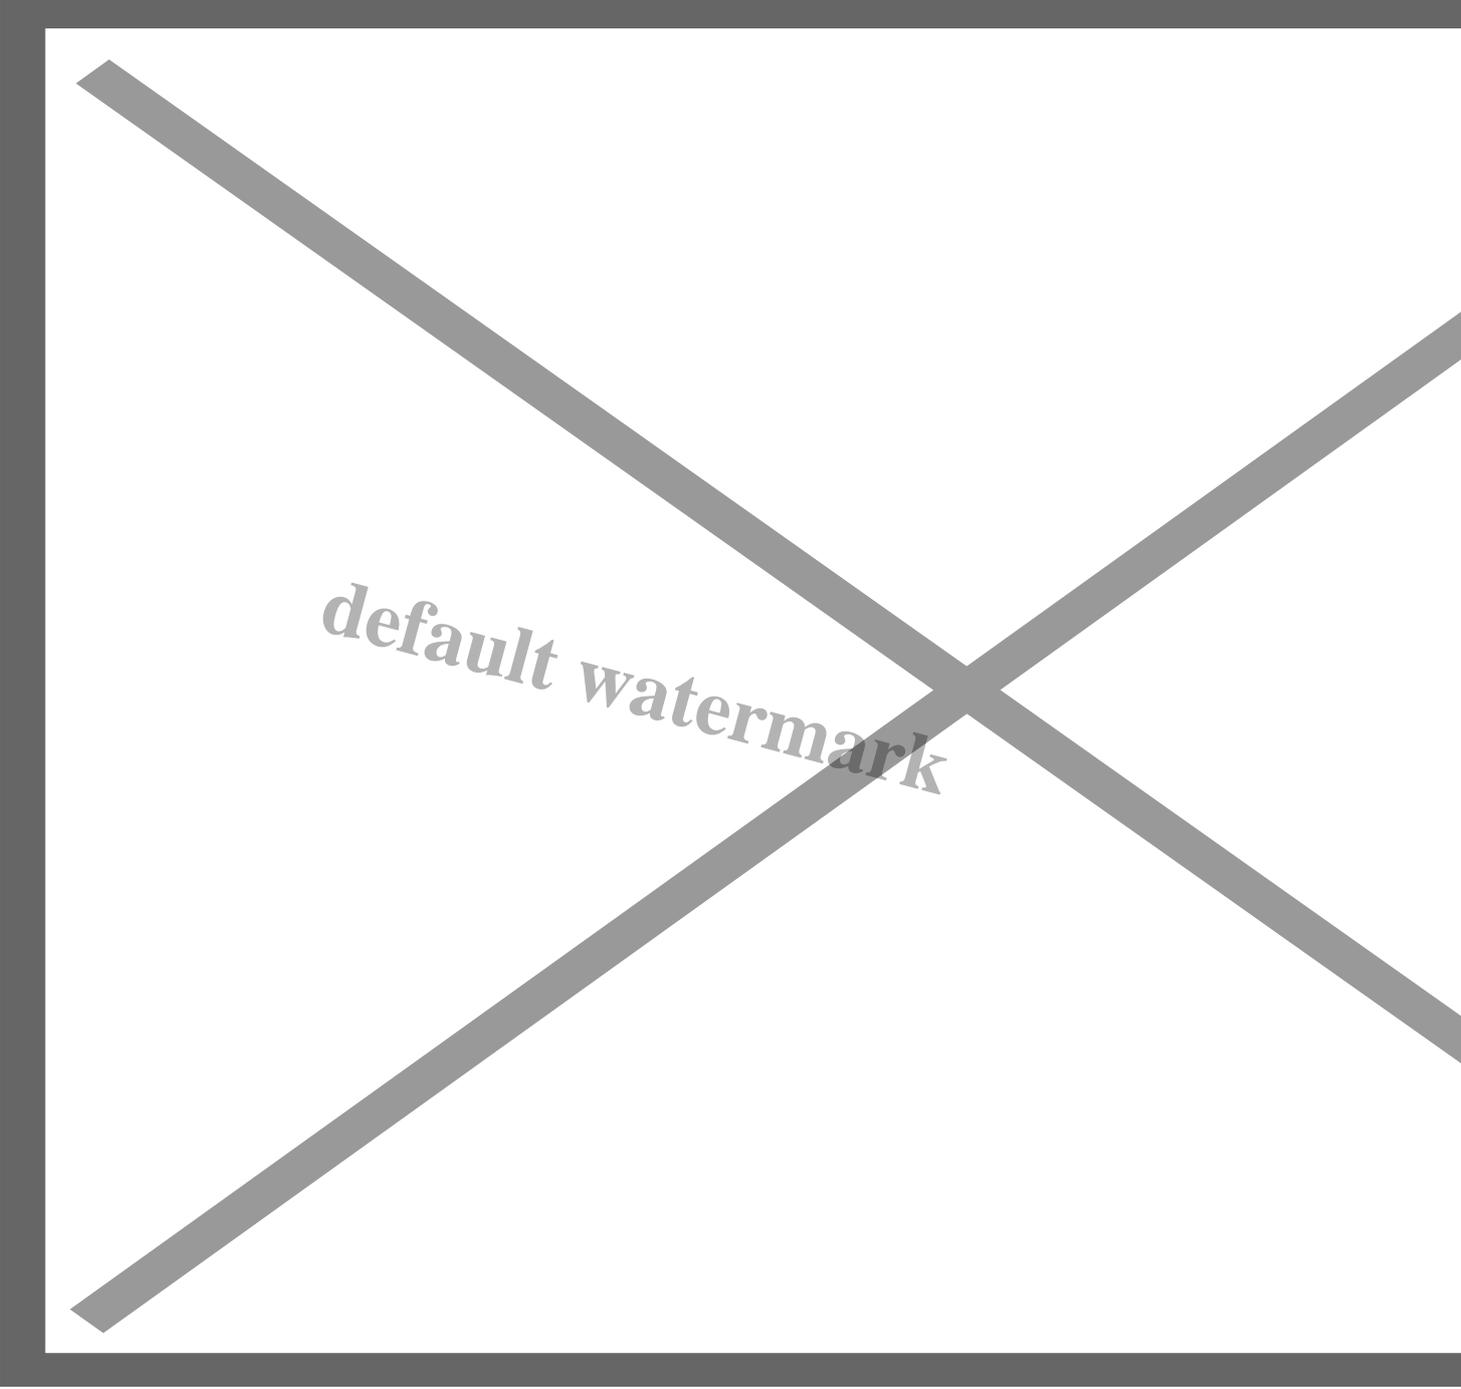

Expressing his views, Krishnasai emphasized that no student's education should come to a halt due to poverty and highlighted the importance of supporting talented individuals from underprivileged backgrounds. He assured that his support would always be available to deserving students and affirmed his commitment to continuing his philanthropic efforts.

The families of the students expressed their gratitude to Krishnasai for his timely financial assistance. Through the Krishnasai Charitable Trust, the actor has consistently extended support beyond caste, religion, and region, earning him the title of a hero not just in reel life but also in real life.
