

Hyderabad Police Commissioner C.V. Anand Unveils Police-Themed Song 'Adu Adu' from the Film 'MissTerious'

Description

Hyderabad: Hyderabad City Police Commissioner, Mr. C.V. Anand, today launched the lyrical song 'Adu Adu' from the upcoming suspense thriller, MissTerious. Produced under the Ashley Creations banner, the song is a tribute to the dedication and hard work of police officers.

After the unveiling, Commissioner Anand shared his appreciation for the song. He lauded singer MLR Karthikeyan for his powerful vocal performance and praised the beautifully filmed visuals. He extended special congratulations to composer and lyricist ML Raja, commending him for crafting a song that wonderfully encapsulates the commitment and spirit of the police force.

The Commissioner also applauded the film's team, acknowledging director Mahi Komatireddy for his fresh approach to the suspense genre. He gave a special mention to producer Jay Vallamdas, praising his passion and dedication in bringing the film to fruition despite managing the production from the USA.

The launch event was graced by the film's cast and crew, including hero Rohit Sahni, Gautham, director Mahi Komatireddy, producer Jay Vallamdas, and Executive Producer Ram Uppu (Bunny Ram).

Expressing their gratitude, producer Jay Vallamdas and director Mahi Komatireddy thanked Commissioner C.V. Anand for taking time from his demanding schedule to support their film. They announced that the lyrical video for 'Adu Adu' is now officially available on the Ashley Music YouTube channel and invited the audience to watch and support their new venture.

Category

1. Entertainment
2. News

Date Created

August 14, 2025

Author

editor

default watermark