

It is gratifying to dedicate Ma Oollo Oka Paduchundhi to Superstar Krishna at A.P Cinematography Minister Chelluboyina Venugopalakrishna

Description

Under Vijay Cine Creations banner, Veeru. K. Reddy is directing a different kind of film titled "Ma Oollo Oka Paduchundhi", which Soma Vijay Prakash produces. "Deyyamante Bayamannadhi" is the tagline. The film earned a special place in the history of world cinema as it is done with its post-production work before the shooting process.

Bharath World Records have notified this record, and the movie team was handed over the certificate by Andhra Pradesh Cinematography Minister Chelluboyina Venugopalakrishna. The event took place in Telugu Film Chamber in which producer Soma Vijay Prakash, directors Veeru. K. Reddy and Neelakanta, Bharath World Records Chairman Ramanarao, jury member Indrani, and producers Muthyala Ramdasu and Ravi Kanagala participated.

Speaking on the occasion, the minister Chelluboyina Venugopalakrishna said that "Ave Kallu" is one of the superhit films acted by Krishna Garu. He noted "Ma Oollo Oka Paduchundhi" "Deyyamante Bayamannadhi" is still a famous song from the film. The minister added it was happy to dedicate such a different movie to superstar Krishna Garu which has the same title as "Ave Kallu"'s song.

He said he felt proud to hand over the certificate to the team and also stated that completing the dubbing, editing, and re-recording works before shooting was great. Director Veeru. K. Reddy and producer Soma Vijay Prakash thanked Bharath World Records Chairman Ramanarao and particularly the minister Chelluboyina Venugopalakrishna for coming all the way to Hyderabad to do the honors!!
