

MATA Invites Telugu Community to Grand 2nd Convention on June 19&??20

Description

Philadelphia, USA: The Mana American Telugu Association (MATA) has extended a warm invitation to Telugu families, community members, friends, and well-wishers from across North America and around the world to participate in its prestigious MATA Convention 2026, scheduled to be held on June 19 and 20.

The two-day convention is designed as a grand celebration of Telugu culture, traditions, spirituality, service, entertainment, unity, and family values. Organizers stated that the MATA team has been working tirelessly with dedication and commitment to ensure a memorable experience for every attendee.

The convention will feature a wide range of programs catering to all age groups, including cultural performances, youth activities, women's forums, CME sessions, matrimonial networking opportunities, political discussions, spiritual programs, Sri Sita Rama Pattabhishekam, and diverse exhibitions.

Renowned singers Ram Miriyala and Devi Sri Prasad (DSP), along with several talented performers, are expected to entertain attendees. Distinguished guests from the fields of cinema, politics, business, medicine, arts, culture, and community service will also participate in the event.

A special highlight of the convention will be the Pre-Convention Awards Ceremony, recognizing individuals who have made significant contributions to society and inspired communities through their service and leadership.

MATA leaders described the convention as more than just an event, calling it a celebration of Telugu heritage, unity, service, devotion, and a commitment to future generations.

The organizers encouraged interested participants to register at the earliest, noting that seats are filling rapidly.
