In a significant development, the NRI BRS UK chapter has announced its new committee today. The announcement was jointly made by Mahesh Bigala, NRI BRS Coordinator, and Anil Kurmachalam, Founder President of NRI BRS.

Highlighting the historical significance of the NRI BRS UK chapter, Mahesh Bigala stated that it was the first NRI chapter of the BRS party, established 14 years ago under the leadership of Anil Kurmachalam in London. Since its inception, the chapter has played a pivotal role in the Telangana movement, supporting the cause with dedication and vigor. Currently, it remains active in contributing to the vision of a golden Telangana and serves as a strong opposition voice.

Mahesh Bigala lauded the outgoing president, Ashok Kumar Goud Dusari, for his exceptional contributions during his six-year tenure. He acknowledged Ashokâ??s efforts in organizing numerous events and activities to strengthen the BRS party and support KCRâ??s leadership.

Best wishes were extended to the newly appointed president, Naveen Reddy, and the members of the new committee. Mahesh Bigala and Anil Kurmachalam encouraged the new team to remain active, especially on social media, and to participate in all initiatives led by the BRS party. They emphasized the importance of strengthening the leadership of KCR and ensuring the partyâ??s return to power in the next Assembly General Elections.
