

Sampangi Group Achieves Guinness World Record Milestone

Description

Hyderabad, â?? Sampangi Group, a trailblazer in real estate, organic farming, and hospitality, has added another remarkable feather to its cap by securing a place in the Guinness Book of World Records. The groupâ??s groundbreaking achievement in cultivating date palm crops in Telangana, previously deemed impossible, has earned it global recognition. This extraordinary feat is a testament to the visionary leadership of Dr. Ramesh Sampangi, Chairman of Sampangi Group, whose PhD in agriculture inspired the innovative concept, and the strategic execution by CEO Suresh Sampangi, whose engineering expertise and business acumen brought it to fruition.

In a prestigious ceremony held in Hyderabad, Telangana Minister Duddilla Sridhar Babu, the chief guest, presented the Guinness World Record certificate to Sampangi Group in the presence of Guinness representatives. Minister Sridhar Babu lauded Dr. Ramesh Sampangi and Suresh Sampangi for their transformative contributions to society and their pioneering leadership, extending heartfelt congratulations for this historic milestone.

Sampangi Group has emerged as a household name across the Telugu states, redefining real estate by prioritizing not just property sales but also sustainable income, health, and happiness for its customers. By introducing date palm cultivation in Narayankhed, the group has created a sustainable revenue stream for plot owners, revolutionizing the agricultural landscape. This initiative underscores Sampangi Group's commitment to environmental sustainability, organic farming, and economic empowerment.

Dr. Ramesh Sampangi's Manapanth organic farming initiative promotes eco-friendly agriculture while delivering healthy, high-quality produce to communities. Meanwhile, CEO Suresh Sampangi's strategic vision and technical expertise have driven the group's growth and the successful implementation of innovative projects. Together, the brothers have demonstrated that real estate is not merely about profit but about fostering societal well-being.

With a presence in ten countries, including the United States, Singapore, Dubai, and Ghana, Sampangi Group continues to lead in real estate, organic farming, and hospitality. Projects like Treasure Valley and City of Joy exemplify the group's dedication to sustainable living, blending modern amenities with eco-conscious design to promote balanced lifestyles.

This Guinness World Record is a shining testament to Sampangi Group's unwavering commitment to quality, innovation, and customer-centric values. Guests at the ceremony expressed their aspirations for the group, under the leadership of the Sampangi brothers, to achieve global prominence. By treating its customers like family and delivering health, wealth, and joy, Sampangi Group has set a new benchmark in the industry.
