

Sistla International Preschool Celebrates First Anniversary in Grand Style

Description

- Actor Rajeev Kanakala, actress Vitika Sheru and motivational speaker Pradeep Kondiparthi attend as chief guests

Hyderabad (Manikonda): Sistla International Preschool celebrated its first anniversary in a grand manner at Manikonda, Hyderabad. Established in October last year, the preschool aims to provide quality education while nurturing discipline, creativity, good manners and strong values among young children. The anniversary celebrations witnessed the participation of film personalities, educationists, parents and other distinguished guests.

Organised under the leadership of Sistla International Preschool Chairman Lohith Sistla, the event was attended by popular actor Rajeev Kanakala, actress Vitika Sheru and motivational speaker Pradeep Kondiparthi as chief guests. Cultural performances and special presentations by the children were among the major highlights of the celebrations, showcasing their talent, confidence and creativity.

Education Must Go Hand in Hand with Values: Pradeep Kondiparthi

Motivational speaker Pradeep Kondiparthi expressed his happiness at being part of the preschool's first anniversary celebrations. He appreciated Chairman Lohith Sistla for his clear vision and forward-thinking approach towards education.

He said that establishing an educational institution focused not only on academic learning but also on discipline and good values among children was commendable. He appreciated the institution's efforts to lay a strong foundation for the overall development of young learners.

A Strong Foundation for Children's Future: Rajeev Kanakala

Actor Rajeev Kanakala said he shared a good association with the management of Sistla International Preschool. He attended the event with the intention of sharing his thoughts on the kind of education children need and the skills that should be nurtured during their formative years.

However, after watching the school's audio-visual presentation, he was pleasantly surprised to find that many of the aspects he had intended to discuss were already incorporated into its curriculum.

He expressed his best wishes for the institution to achieve greater milestones over the next 25 years and continue laying the foundation for a bright future for thousands of children.

Preschool Education Plays a Key Role in Child Development: Vitika Sheru

Actress Vitika Sheru said she was delighted to see the children at the school. She emphasised that school education plays a crucial role in shaping every individual's life.

Sharing her personal experience, she said the encouragement and care provided by her mother from an early age had played a significant role in her journey. She highlighted the importance of preschool education in children's growth and personality development and expressed her appreciation for the initiatives undertaken by Sistla International Preschool.

Childhood Experiences Inspired the Establishment of the School: Lohith Sistla

Sistla International Preschool Chairman Lohith Sistla said his childhood experiences had inspired him to establish the institution. During his school days, he often wished he could learn in a manner that aligned with his interests and preferences.

Driven by this thought, he established the preschool with the vision of providing quality education in line with international standards while encouraging children to explore their individual interests, abilities and creativity from an early age.

He added that, among his various business ventures, the educational institution held a special emotional significance for him. He expressed happiness at celebrating the school's first anniversary on such a grand scale.

Children's Cultural Performances Steal the Show

The event was attended by school principal Moghosh, parents and several other prominent personalities. Popular anchor Niharika hosted the programme in an engaging manner.

A Kuchipudi dance performance by the Kaustubha Kuchipudi troupe, led by Kuchipudi dance organiser Shobha Gopu, captivated the audience.

The celebrations concluded on a joyful note, with enthusiastic performances by the children, inspiring messages from the guests and a festive atmosphere marking the successful completion of Sistla International Preschool's first year.
