Description

In a grand and star-studded affair, the pre-release event of Thurum Khanlu unfolded with unparalleled excitement and glamour at SVIT College, Secunderabad, on the evening of August 31st. The highly anticipated film, produced by the visionary Asif Jani and directed by the promising talent Shiva Kalyan, was graced by none other than the renowned Bollywood luminary and the Real Hero himself, Sonu Sood, who joined the event as the chief guest. The presence of Sonu Sood added an extra layer of stardom to this cinematic extravaganza, making it an unforgettable evening. Notable guests in attendance included Amberpet Shankar, Chikoti Praveen, Chinna Srisailam Yadav, and many more luminaries from the industry.

Thurum Khanlu began its journey as a humble village revenge comedy, rooted in the captivating Mahbubnagar slang. Through unwavering dedication and tireless efforts, the film is now poised to captivate audiences worldwide when it hits theaters on September 8th.

Producer Bekkam Venugopal expressed his heartfelt gratitude to Sonu Sood for his invaluable support and recognized the challenges of launching a short film in today's competitive landscape. Director Shiva Kalyan received well-deserved accolades for crafting an engaging narrative, despite being a newcomer in the industry. Venugopal commended Kalyan for his remarkable achievement in bringing together a fresh ensemble and confidently predicted the film's immense success.

Lead actor Sriram Nimmala, a long-time admirer of Sonu Sood since his school days, shared an emotional moment as he stood beside his childhood hero. He recalled being bedridden with a fever of 103 degrees while watching Sonu's movie Arundhathi. Today, he expressed his profound gratitude for Sonu's presence as the chief guest of Thurum Khanlu, in which Sriram plays the hero.

Sonu Sood, affectionately hailed as the Real Thurum Khan of India, humbly acknowledged the pivotal roles played by his father, his friend Bablu, and the film's director, Shiva Kalyan, in shaping his life. He emphasized that a star-studded cast was not a prerequisite for delivering laughter and entertainment, expressing his belief that Thurum Khanlu would captivate audiences for two and a half hours with its humor.

Director Shiva Kalyan unveiled the film's intriguing premise, revolving around three characters named Vishnu, Ishwara, and Brahma in the picturesque village of Tupakulagudem, drawing inspiration from the formidable Puranas. Producer Asif Jani was recognized for his unwavering dedication, without which this celebratory week would not have been possible.

MD Asif Jani, the film's producer, highlighted the need for the original Thurum Khan, Sonu Sood, to champion this cinematic gem. In a heartfelt gesture, he extended his gratitude to everyone present, with a special mention of Sonu Sood.

Income Tax Commissioner Jeevan Lal of Telangana-Andhra Pradesh praised "Thurum Khanlu," predicting that one viewing would never be enough. He commended Director Shiva Kalyan for introducing a new dimension of humor, unlike anything seen before.

With his infectious charisma, Sonu Sood expressed his blessings for "Thurum Khanlu," affirming its potential to become a 500 crore grosser. He extended his heartfelt gratitude to the Telugu audience, revealing his deep-rooted affection for Telugu cinema.

In the words of the "Real Hero" Sonu Sood, "Thurum Khanlu" is just the beginning, with plans for Part 2 and Part 3 already in the pipeline. Don't miss this opportunity to witness the magic of Telugu cinema, a realm where love, discipline, and entertainment converge to create unforgettable moments.
