

Telangana Marriage Bureau Mediators Welfare Association Celebrates 5th Anniversary in a Grand Manner

Description

- Distinguished Guests Attend the Event
- Legislative Council Deputy Chairman Dr. Banda Prakash
- MLC L. Ramana
- GOPA President Bandi Sayanna
- Saraswati Upasakulu Daivagna Sharma and several other dignitaries
- TBMWA Members Successfully Arranged 1,800 Marriages in a Year
- Awards Presented to Marriage Bureau Professionals and Distinguished Personalities
- 280 Awards Distributed Across Seven Categories
- Cultural Performances Enthrall the Audience
- Grand Celebrations Held Under the Leadership of Burra Srinivas Goud

Hyderabad: The 5th Anniversary celebrations of the Telangana Marriage Bureau Mediators Welfare Association (TBMWA) were held with great enthusiasm and grandeur at Ravindra Bharathi, Hyderabad. During the event, prestigious awards were presented to marriage bureau professionals for their outstanding contributions, as well as to distinguished personalities from various fields and individuals actively involved in social service.

The program was organized under the leadership of TBMWA Founder and State President Burra Srinivas Goud. Several public representatives, social leaders, business personalities, and eminent guests attended the event and presented awards to the recipients. A remarkable achievement highlighted during the celebrations was that TBMWA members successfully facilitated more than 1,800 marriages across Telangana within a single year.

The association presented several prestigious awards, including the Sri Mahanandi Award, Gautama Buddha Seva Ratna Award, Nataraj Award, Marriage Bureau Icon Award, Marriage Bureau Ratna Award, Uttama Seva Ratna Award, and Shramashakti Award. A total of 280 awards were distributed to recognize excellence, social service, and professional achievements. A special video showcasing the successful five-year journey of TBMWA was also screened during the event.

Addressing the gathering, Legislative Council Deputy Chairman Dr. Banda Prakash praised the services rendered by the Telangana Marriage Bureau Mediators Welfare Association and appreciated the efforts of its members in contributing to society. He assured support in addressing the issues faced by professionals in the marriage bureau sector.

Speaking on the occasion, Burra Srinivas Goud said that the association's primary objective is to unite marriage bureaus across Telangana under one platform, provide professional recognition to mediators, and contribute to society through various service activities. He emphasized that the association continues to grow stronger through unity, mutual cooperation, and dedication among its members. He also urged the government to address the concerns and challenges faced by marriage bureau professionals.

The celebrations witnessed participation from TMBMWA members from various districts of Telangana in large numbers.

Among those present were Dr. Banda Prakash, MLC L. Ramana, Bandi Sayanna, Muddagouni Ram Mohan Goud, prominent businessmen Sama Swaroop Goud and Ryakala Lakshminarayana, Mamindla Madhavi, Devika, former corporator Adapa Chandramouli, women leader Anuradha, TMBMWA leaders Panyala Mamatha Goud, Shyam Rao Mudiraj, Jagadish Patel, Anthati Maheshwari Goud, Mukkera Nirmala, Aila Ravinder Goud, Madhusudan Goud, Vangala Balaraju, Malugari Shekhar Goud, GBN Elite leaders Boora Malsur Goud, Ravigari Prasad Goud, Swami Goud Muddam, Matta Raju, Palle Sai Charan Goud, Shiva Kumar Goud, Peddi Shankar, and several members of the Telangana Marriage Bureau Mediators Welfare Association.

Category

- 1. News

Date Created

May 29, 2026

Author

editor