

The Platinum Jubilee celebrations of Jamal Mohamed College, Trichy, were inaugurated by Tamil Nadu Chief Minister M.K. Stalin.

Description

Chief Minister M.K. Stalin, urging students to join Oraniyil Tamil Nadu, the DMK's outreach initiative, declared on Wednesday that a united student community would make the State invincible.

In his address at the inauguration of the Platinum Jubilee celebrations of Jamal Mohamed College, Trichy, Chief Minister M.K. Stalin accentuated that while the paths of leaders like Gandhi, Ambedkar, and Periyar offer guidance and inspiration, the ideology represented by the Godse group must be firmly overruled, he added that for the Dravidian Model government, the development of the State remains a top priority, with knowledge serving as its cornerstone. In line with this vision, the government has been implementing a range of initiatives to provide high-quality education something, he noted, that students are well aware of.

Praising the role of Jamal Mohamed College in nation-building, Chief Minister M.K. Stalin said the institution has fostered a wealth of talent who have excelled across diverse fields, quoting two of his ministers were studied in Jamal and hoped more students from Jamal Mohamed College may join in his ministry later. These alumni have brought great pride to their alma mater, which continues to advance and achieve success on multiple fronts, he added.
