Grand celebrations held in Habsiguda

Fashion show steals the spotlight

Hyderabad: Lekda Design Studio, known for turning women's dreams into stylish realities, is expanding its creative journey with the launch of its second branch. The studio, which has brought vibrant colors to the world of fashion, unveiled its new outlet in Habsiguda. The grand inauguration was led by Tollywood's popular actress Ananya Nagalla.

Fashion designer Divya Karnati hosted the event, which was graced by several distinguished guests including former Minister Srinivas Goud, former MP Boora Narsaiah Goud, former MLA NVSS Prabhakar, Congress leader Darga Dayakar, BRS leader Manda Sanjeeva Reddy, among others.

The fashion street walk show organized as part of the launch was a major highlight. Models elegantly showcased various designer outfits, earning admiration from the audience.

Speaking at the event, actress Ananya Nagalla said, "Lekda Design Studio is doing a commendable job by giving women the opportunity to wear their dream designs and achieve self-respect. I wholeheartedly appreciate Divya Karnati for her efforts in empowering women and supporting their creativity. I believe this new branch will help even more women fulfill their fashion dreams."

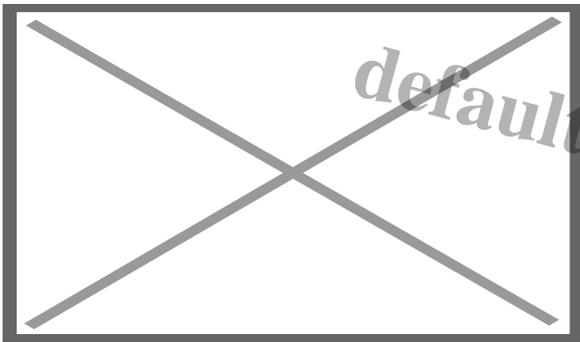

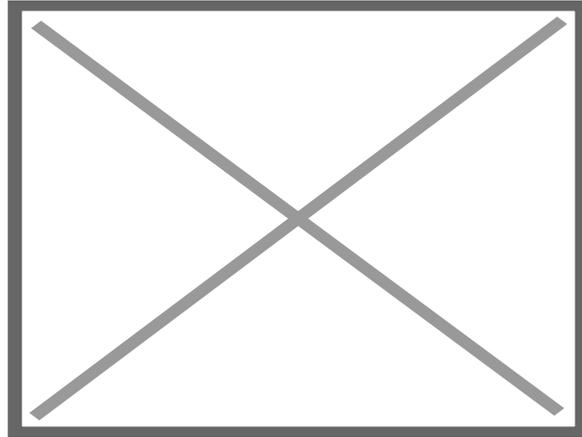

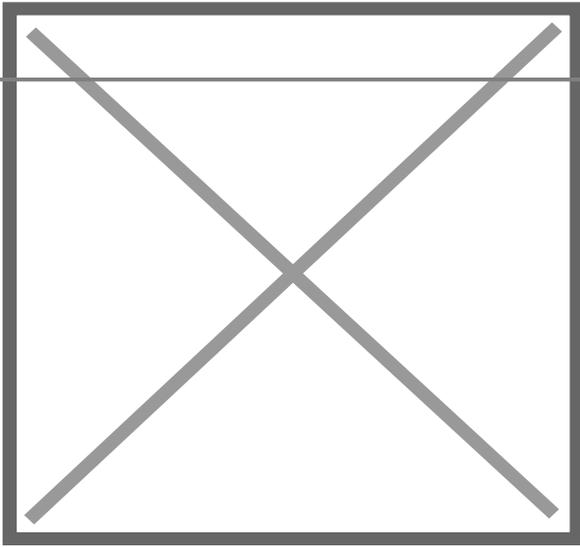

Former Minister Srinivas Goud remarked, "Establishing an international-level fashion studio in Hyderabad is truly praiseworthy. Divya Karnati has not only created employment opportunities but is also offering designs suitable for all ages and every type of celebration. All fashion needs can be met at Lekda Design Studio."

Former MP Boora Narsaiah Goud said, "Only when women are empowered will the country progress. It's commendable that Divya Karnati, with her own efforts, has launched Lekda Design Studio to cater to the modern fashion tastes of today's youth. Just as a doctor prescribes medicine after diagnosis, Lekda designs the perfect attire based on one's features and requirements."

Divya Karnati, founder of Lekda Design Studio, said, "Our designs combine creativity with diversity, especially for the new generation, kids, and fashion enthusiasts. The overwhelming response from our customers encouraged us to launch this second branch. I extend my heartfelt thanks to everyone who supported us during this grand opening."

Established in 2015 with just two employees, Divya Karnati's vision has now blossomed into a team of over 30 professionals. A graduate in fashion designing, Divya has transformed Lekda into a symbol of women's empowerment. With a focus on women-centric designs, the studio has earned the trust of thousands of customers and is now aiming for statewide expansion. She has also received accolades such as the Best Fashion Designer Award at Indian Kids Fashion Week (IKFW) for designing outfits for 30 children and a Nandi Award from another organization, proving her exceptional talent.

The new branch offers not just designer outfits, but also matching one gram gold jewelry, decorative items, and trending apparel for women, men, and children. It also features a wide range of attractive products perfect for special occasions.

The event turned into a colorful celebration with the presence of actress Ananya Nagalla, former Minister Srinivas Goud, former MP Boora Narsaiah Goud, former MLA NVSS Prabhakar, Congress leader Darga Dayakar, BRS leader Manda Sanjeeva Reddy, many prominent guests, political leaders, models, women, and children attending in large numbers.
