

WTITC Opens New Office in Tirupati

Description

Tirupati (MediaBoss Network): The World Telugu Information Technology Council (WTITC) has opened its new office in the city of Tirupati, located in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. The inauguration ceremony of the office took place in the IIDT Building, which is located in close proximity to the Tirupati Airport.

The event was graced by the presence of Maddila Gurumoorthy, the Member of Parliament from Tirupati, who formally inaugurated the new office. The Government of Andhra Pradesh provided the space for the office free of cost, and WTITC expressed its gratitude to the Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh, YS Jaganmohan Reddy, APEITA CEO Kiran Salikireddy, and Hemachandra Reddy Chavireddy for their support and contributions towards the establishment of the new office.

With the opening of its new office in Tirupati, WTITC aims to attract significant IT investments to the state of Andhra Pradesh, which is expected to create job opportunities in the region. The physical presence of WTITC in the state will further strengthen its position as a hub for IT development and innovation.
