This movie, which was released as a story based on a real incident, has recently come to the audience. Let's find out how this movie is in the review report.

Story:

Yadgiri(Jeeva) has two sons named Lakshman(Nagaraju) and Venkat(Anirudh). Younger son Venkat works. The elder Lakshman steals his brother's money and gets drunk. One day, Lakshman steals the money that Venkat had saved to buy a gift for his girlfriend Swati (Yashaswini) and drinks it. Venkat gets angry and quarrels with his elder brother Lakshman. In the fight, his elder brother dies. Venkat goes behind bars. After getting bail, Venkat gets shocked to know about his brother's insurance. What is that insurance? What happens behind it? What kind of twists happen is the story of the movie.

Artists' Performances:

Senior actor Jeeva in the role of father Yadgiri brings his character to life. Anirudh played the lead role of his younger son Venkat. He put the entire story of the film on himself. He did justice to his role. Yashaswini, who acted as his lover, looked cute. It should be said that Rajeev Kanakala, who played the role of an advocate, is a special attraction of the movie. He brought more to the story of the movie with his acting. Rohit who played the villain played his role effectively. And Muralidhar Goud, Madhumani, Nagaraj, Motilal and others who acted in the other roles impressed by acting in their respective roles.

Technical Aspects:

It has to be said that director Bhikshapati Raju Pandhri has been successful in using the technical team properly to do justice to the story he has written. In this sequence, the music provided by Vijay Kurakula can be said to be the first plus point of the film. Although there are no songs in the film, Vijay has done magic with the background music. Srinu Boddu Panithanam by DVP is also super. Editing work done by Marthand K. Venkatesh's performance is okay. It seems that the scissors should have done a bit of work.

Analysis:

Director Bhikshapati Raju wrote the story of this movie based on real incidents. A subject that has not been seen so far in movies has been taken. There is also a message in this movie that gives an alert saying, "Be careful, this will also happen." There are also all kinds of elements. When you come to the theater and watch the movie, you can say that this movie definitely gives you the feeling of watching a good movie.
